Two-Story Plant and Ware Room of Crothersville Company Destroyed the Loss of $20,000.

ORIGIN OF FLAMES UNKNOWN

Large Dormitory Across the Street Saved—Loss Partially Covered by Insurance.

Fire, the origin of which is as mysterious as that which consumed the canning factory at Rockford on February 10, totally destroyed the two-story plant and one of the ware rooms of the Crothersville Canning Company Friday night. The flames were discovered shortly after 11:30 o'clock and were then beyond control. Crothersville has only limited fire fighting equipment and the volunteer brigade was unable to extinguish the fire. By heroic work the large ware house and residence across the street from the canning factory were saved. The buildings burned throughout the night and early today only the smoldering ruins were left.

The factory was owned by Allen Swope, Seymour postmaster, William Isaacs, of Hamilton township, and George Schuler, of Crothersville. Mr. Schuler was the manager of the plant. He was called to the factory as soon as the fire was discovered and because of over exertion and excitement in trying to fight the fire was taken ill and was removed to his home. Early today he was unable to leave his bed.

The loss on the buildings and contents will exceed $20,000, according to the first estimates of the owners. The plant was valued at about $18,000 while the dormitory and residence across the street from the factory and which were saved and worth about $2,000. Two years ago this coming summer extensive improvements were made at the factory and new machinery and equipment to the value of $6,000 were installed. All the machinery was ruined by the heat and will be sold as junk. Mr. Swope believes that the dormitory was saved by the shelter afforded by a large tree in front of the building. The spreading branches protected the roof and front of the dormitory which is about sixty feet from the factory. The loss on the building and ware room is partially covered by insurance. In the ware room that was destroyed were about one thousand cases of kraut, hominy, and pork and beans. Each case contained twenty-four cans. These were ready for shipment and some were to be sent out to-day. The canned goods are fully covered by insurance.

Included in the loss were eight or nine hundred empty cans. In the dormitory across the street were stored about $1,400 worth of labels. While these were not damaged they will be useless as they bear the name of the Crothersville Canning Company and become so much waste paper unless the company decides to rebuild.

The fire was discovered by several members of the Red Men's Lodge, who were returning home following an initiation at their hall. The alarm

SELECTIONS BY BOYS' CHOIR

Number of Churches Will Dismiss Regular Evening Service—Juniors Will Attend in Body.

The first event of the commencement week will take place tomorrow night when the Seniors of the Shields high school will attend the baccalaureate service at the First M. E. church. The annual address will be delivered this year by the Rev. James Harold More, pastor of the Presbyterian church. At this service the members of the Junior class—the Seniors of next year—will appear for the first time in a body at a commencement week event. The Juniors will occupy seats at the front of the church and will march into the auditorium ahead of the graduating class.

The annual sermon is always heard by a large audience and it is expected that the auditorium will be crowded to the doors long before the members of the 1916 class enter the church.

A feature of the program will be the chorus of boys selected from the elementary grades. This chorus will furnish several anthems. The boys have been practicing for several days under the direction of Miss Adelaide Gasaway, director of the music department in the city schools. Miss Pearl Teekemeyer, a member of the class, will preside at the pipe organ.

Man is the only creature that persists in eating that which does not agree with him but woman is learning to take better care of man than very often he does of himself.

Home Economics today has a larger meaning than at any other time in the story of the race. Dietary laws are as important to health as spiritual laws are satisfying to the soul. For a week the women of Seymour will be privileged to meet and hear Miss Florence M. Peet who believes that a tasteful meal well served is an added joy of living. Good cookery is essential to real happiness. Foods that are appetizing bring satisfaction to the mind and cheer to the body.

Miss Peet is coming to direct the course in Home Economics which the Republican will give all next week in Society Hall. Were she to confine her whole week to a demonstration of how to prepare the different foods on each afternoon's attractive menu the women of Seymour would be well repaid for their presence. This most welcome information will enable good cooks to become better cooks and give novices in the culinary art a splendid working foundation of common sense. But valuable as all this will be, it is only one feature of the program.

Miss Peet is past mistress in the management of the kitchen from both essential viewpoints of good health and the family pocketbook. Women who have heard her in other cities have no hesitancy in saying that her talks are not only well worth hearing but that Miss Peet possesses a storehouse of information that has helped them do the seeming impossible—cut down the cost of living without the sacrifice of anything pleasing to the appetite.

During Miss Peet's stay, recipes will be given away and delicious foods served at every session of the school.

"The Woman Who Spends" is the subject of Miss Peet's talk at the opening session. As every woman in Seymour is a woman who does spend, she will find something of interest in the message which Miss Peet brings. Housewives are invited to bring problems of their own cookery to the school where they will have an opportunity to present them and have them answered. The sessions begin promptly at 2:30.

The following musical program will be given Monday afternoon on the Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph: "April Smiles," (Orchestra). Depret "Forgotten,".....Eugene Cowles Sung by Thomas Chalmers "Meditation," (Violin Solo).....Thias Played by Albert Spalding "Blue Danube Waltz,".....Strauss Orchestra. "Evening Star," from Tannhauser (Cello Solo) Played by Paulo Gruppe

A different Edison program will be given each afternoon. Watch the paper for program from day to day.

HEAVY PATROL TO GUARD THE BORDER

Withdrawal of Sixth Cavalry from Interior Mexico is Part of the New Plan.

TO LOCATE STRONG POSTS

Patrols will Ride Along Frontier in Sufficiently Strong Columns to Resist Attack.

By United Press.

Columbus, N. M., May 20.—Withdrawal of the Sixth cavalry from interior Mexico is part of new patrol plan decided upon by the United States, according to information here. By this plan heavy patrols to cover the entire 2,200 miles of the Mexican border are to be inaugurated. This will be the personal feature of the new police policy.

Strong military posts will be fixed along the border on bases for the patrols. For the present the patrols will police the border riding in sufficiently strong columns to resist attack. These patrols will be drawn within supporting distance from the state militia and from the regulars now on the border, reenforced such troops as are withdrawn from interior Mexico. For that purpose, according to information here, the troops in Mexico will be gradually withdrawn.

A system of truck trains similar to that in use from Columbus south into Mexico will be used to keep these patrols in tact and to supply them in case they are off the railroads.

REPORT FOLLOWS THE INSPECTION

Recommendations Are Made in Final Statement Concerning Local Clean-up Campaign.

LASTING BENEFITS TO CITY

Urged That Ordinance Requiring Closed Manure Bins and Garbage Containers be Enforced.

Final report of the committee which inspected the city following the Clean-Up and Paint-Up campaign conducted in this city the week of May 14-20, was filed today. The committee made a thorough inspection of the streets and alleys, and while they found that much had been done to improve the condition of the city, there is still much that might be done that would give the city lasting benefit.

One thing that impressed the inspecting committee was the excessive number of open manure piles in the alleys in all sections of town and especially east of the Pennsylvania railroad. The city ordinance provides that all manure bins shall be tightly closed and that garbage shall be kept in closed containers. The inspecting committee recommends that manure bins and garbage be kept as required by the ordinance as a most effective manner of aiding the city health authorities in their fight against the fly.

The committee also reports that in spite of all that has been done the eliminate the open garbage receptacle, two-thirds of these cans remain open.

The inspecting committee found that the business part of town is in the worst condition of any section of the city and the members desire to appeal to the civic pride of the business men to make this section more attractive, as visitors in the city are likely to judge the entire community by the down-town district.

Much gratification was felt at the way the housewives in the city responded to the appeal for a general "clean-up." This was especially true in the fourth and fifth wards, where a great improvement has been made. Special praise was also given the B. & O. division officials and yard employees for beautifying their premises so much.

It has been suggested that many of the old out buildings in town which are at present unpainted and ugly, could be vastly improved and also made more sanitary by the application of a coat of white wash. This is very inexpensive and easy to apply, and the result would be very gratifying.

Finally, the committee appeals for

BANDITS RAID TEXAS BORDER

Loot More Ranches In the Big Bend Country.

PERSHING REMAINS IN MEXICO

American Forces In Mexico, South of the Big Bend Country Have Started Back to Texas to Police Border and Prevent Raids.

El Paso, Texas, May 20.—Another raid over the main line into Texas, and threatened troubles of a similar nature in the future, have halted the expedition of American forces into Mexico, south of the Big Bend country of Texas.

Placido Villalueva, a Villa bandit, reported killed in a fight with troops of Telesforo Dominguez, near Ojinaga, several weeks ago, has joined forces with Jose Chavez, another bandit leader, and they are stealing horses on both sides of the river. The first theft was made from the ranch of Buck Poole, where they took ten head of horses, near Presidio, Texas.

News reached here that they also raided the ranch of Felipe Valdez, sixty miles from Presidio, taking a number of horses and supplies. It is generally thought they are getting new mounts for the purpose of committing raids into Texas towns.

This same band came from the vicinity of Lajitas, and it is said, several of the members were in the band which raided Glen Springs. The total force is from three hundred to five hundred men.

As a result of these new raids, pursuit of the Mexican bandits who raided Glen Springs two weeks ago, is to be given up and the American government, for the present, will content itself with a thorough policing of the American country in the Big Bend.

The Sixth cavalry came out of Mexico, arriving at Columbus, and going into camp there. As soon as they rest up from their long march, from the vicinity of Namiquipas, the troopers will be sent to Marathon for distribution in the Big Bend. In the event that General Pershing needs any more men with him in Mexico, the regiment of the New Mexican national guard, now mobilized and recruiting to the full strength at Columbus, will be sent in.

It became known that the American forces, in Mexico, south of the Big Bend country have been turned about and started on their way back to Texas. They penetrated over one hundred miles into Mexico and encountered but one force of bandits, and these escaped, after abandoning Deemer and his men. The fact that additional cavalry is not available to extend the line of communication, and that motor trucks are not available in sufficient quantities to keep supplies going to the troops, is considered responsible for the abandonment of the expedition.

It is declared in military circles that no more of General Pershing's forces are to be withdrawn from Mexico at present. The second punitive expedition into Mexico, though small, caused more serious objection from the Carranza officials, according to reports here, than the Pershing expedition, many Mexicans looking up on these as proof that the United States was gradually slipping in one expedition after another in an effort to seize the entire country.

BLAME WETS FOR BOMB PLOT

Van Buren, Ind., Officials Threatened After Doctor's Office Is Dynamited.

Marion, Ind., May 20.—Five officials of the town of Van Buren, near here, found threatening notes on their doorsteps after the office building of Dr. J. K. Derbyshire had been wrecked by a dynamite bomb.

The officials threatened are all prominent dry workers, and Dr. Derbyshire was a dry leader and it is said he was recently threatened on the street by a wet worker.

The office building of Dr. Derbyshire was demolished by an explosion of dynamite. All of the windows in the Derbyshire home, nearby, were shattered.

Sheriff O. P. Wright and Deputy Sheriff Frank Tukey are at Van Buren trying to unravel the mystery surrounding the affair. One clew they have is a second stick of dynamite, found in the yard, with a note attached.

So far as Sheriff Wright has been able to make out the note appears to be a warning to Dr. Derbyshire to leave Van Buren.

METCALF TRIAL POSTPONED

Cicero, Ind., Bank Failure Case Reset For July 11; Mrs. Metcalf Sick.

Noblesville, Ind., May 20.—The trial of R. H. Metcalf, president of the Farmers and Merchants' bank of Cicero, when it failed recently, has been postponed until July 11 because of the sickness of his wife in Kentucky. Mrs. Metcalf is to be a witness in the trial. Metcalf is charged with having received a deposit of $6,000 from Oris Leytle when he knew the bank was insolvent.

Metcalf has been in jail for seven months under bonds aggregating $4,500, and his attorneys are endeavoring to have the bond reduced to $2,000. Judge Cloe has indicated that he may accept a cash bond of $2,000, and it is said relatives of Metcalf in Kentucky already have provided that amount of money.

GERMANY SEEKS VON IGEL PAPERS

Would Secure Criminating Evidence In Plot.

PEACE RUMORS FROM BERLIN

Confidential Information States That Blockade Is Pinching Germany and That Situation Is Becoming a Very Serious Matter.

Washington, May 20.—In pursuance of a policy to eliminate all possible causes of friction with the United States, the German government now proposes a solution to the vexatious von Igel case, the only outstanding matter left in dispute.

Wolf E. Von Igel, former secretary to Captain von Papen, recalled German military attaché, was arrested in New York in connection with a plot to blow up the Welland canal, and his papers were seized by federal agents and kept despite vigorous protests by Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador. Germany contended that von Igel, as a diplomatic officer, was immune from arrest, and his papers immune from seizure.

The German proposal to settle this acute controversy has now been suggested by the German ambassador. It is for legal proceedings against von Igel to be dropped and his papers returned, on the understanding that he be recalled and punished in Germany, providing the evidence shows that "he was guilty of an offense."

How the state department will act on this proposal is not known. The seizure papers are understood to contain much valuable information, implicating high personage, who were involved in intrigue directed against Germany's enemies. It is understood the German government is very anxious to get possession of these papers.

Further pleas for the initiation of peace pourparlers continue to reach here from Berlin. Apparently the German censors have instructions to pass all matter bearing on Germany's willingness to discuss peace, and the reports along this line are so persistent that they are regarded as more or less inspired by the Germans.

Co-incident with the peace talk, comes confidential information to the state department from American consuls in Germany, showing the effect which the British blockade is having on food prices and on the stoppage of necessary materials to Germany. The nature of these advices is kept a secret at the state department, but it is understood that they show that the food problem is now becoming a very serious matter for the officials to deal with.

Coincident with these reports from Germany comes news that Great Britain is tightening the blockade more and more, with the evident intention of cutting off all sorts of German supplies more vigorously than before. Their submarines, which put up for the winter in Russian Baltic ports, are now active again and Consul General Skinner reported from London that three German ships had been sunk by submarines.

REPORT ON SOLDIER'S DEATH

Facts In Killing of Trooper at Juarez Probably Never Be Known.

Washington, May 20.—Secretary of War Baker announced the receipt of a report from Major General Funston concerning the killing of Sergeant Harry Furman, of the machine gun company, Twenty-third infantry, across the border near El Paso.

The report stated that Furman had gone into the strip of Mexican territory, lying on this side of the Rio Grande, and that his dead body had been found in the spot where it had fallen from his horse. General Gavira, the Mexican commander of Juarez, the report states, had endeavored in every way possible to co-operate with the American officials in the investigation.

A Mexican testified that the American soldier in an intoxicated condition, had ridden across the line and had fired his revolver, and that the shots had been returned by the immigration guards at Juarez.

On the other hand, General Funston reported, an American immigration officer testified that he had seen Furman shortly before the latter's death and that he appeared to be perfectly sober. General Funston closed his report expressing the belief that the entire facts in the case would probably never be known.

AUSTRIANS CROSS ITALIAN FRONTIER

Teuton Army Holds Point on Monte Baldo Ridge.

FRENCH LOSE POSITION

Germans, In Massed Force, Hurlled Back at Two Other Points on Verdun Front—Heavy Artillery Bombardment Along Le Mort Front.

London, May 20.—For the first time since the beginning of the hostilities between Italy and Austria, the Austrians have crossed the Italian frontier in the Lago Di Garda region, and are established on the Costabella, a ridge of the Monte Baldo, between the lake and the Lagarina valley. At this point, where the present Austrian offensive has met with the greatest success, Berlin dispatches say that the Italians have been driven back four miles from the positions on Austrian soil, which they occupied at the opening of the attack, and which they had held since early in the war.

The positions on the Austrian side of the frontier in this region from which the Italians now have been driven, were abandoned by the Austrians originally, according to German military writers, in order to base their defense on a stronger line running across the head of the lake from Riva to a point somewhat south of Rovereto.

Now that the Austrian offensive in the Trentino is under way, the Austrians are seeking to drive the Italians back across the frontier to relieve the pressure on Riva, Rovereto and Trent.

Using large forces of men from two new divisions recently brought up to the Verdun front, the Germans made extremely violent attacks during the night on the front between the Bois D'Avocourt and Hill 304. The attacking troops were thrown back on both flanks, but succeeded in the center, on the Haucourt-Eenos road, in capturing a small work to the south of Hill 287.

With the failure in the Bois D'Avocourt, on the left of the line attacked and to the west of Hill 304, on the right, the Germans massed their attacking forces in an effort to continue the progress made in Hill 287 sector, but were checked by the French artillery. An attempt also was made to retake the field fort captured by the French on the eastern slopes of Hill 304, but the attack broke down.

Along their front the Le Mort Homme, the artillery bombardment was continued with great violence, but the Germans did not repeat their infantry attacks.

Chicago, May 20.—Under the terms of the will of Bryan Lathrop, millionaire real estate dealer, and philanthropist, filed for probate here, he bequeaths approximately $700,000 to the Orchestra association, which maintains the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, with the suggestion that it is very desirable that an institution should be founded in connection with the orchestra and maintained by the orchestra association, in which an education can be had in higher branches of musical composition not inferior to that provided in cities of Europe.

AMERICAN WHO HELPED
IRISH MAY BE SPARED

Execution Stayed Pending Investigation.

London, May 20.—From all that could be learned from official quarters with regard to the status of Jeremiah G. Lynch, of New York, a naturalized American citizen, convicted by a court martial of participation in the Dublin rebellion, and sentenced to death, is still alive and the war office and General Sir John Maxwell, commander of the British troops in Ireland, are considering his case as a result of an appeal in his behalf sent by the American state department. Lynch, it was reported, was to have been executed.

The American embassy gave out a statement, stating that it had received an inquiry from Washington concerning Lynch's offense, requesting that he be not executed until the facts have been forwarded to Washington. The embassy adds that it was awaiting the reply of the war office.

At the war office it was learned that a telegram had been sent to General Sir John Maxwell, reading: "If the facts are as stated, the execution is to be postponed."

Later the foreign office forwarded the state department's request concerning Lynch to General Maxwell at Dublin.

NATIONAL GUARDSMEN TO PRESENT BATTLE OF MARINE

Congressmen, Senators and City Officials From Many States to See Military Spectacle.

By United Press

Sheepshead Bay, L. I., May 20.—Several hundred congressmen, senators and state and city officials from all over the United States are here today to see the historic battle of the Marne reproduced by 10,000 national guardsmen at Sheepshead Bay Speedway.

Another big event of the seven day meet will be the 250 mile cavalry races of picked cavalry groups starting simultaneously from cities in New York, Vermont, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts and other states and racing to New York City. It will be the first race of the kind ever staged.

Militia cavalry teams from many cities in the country have entries in this event of the tournament.

The points selected by the National Guard from which the race will start are Washington, D. C.; Altoona, Penn.; Ithaca, N. Y.; Syracuse, N. Y.; Rutland, Vt.; Manchester, N. H.; and Boston. Entries have been received from all of these cities, and, in addition, from Baltimore, Md.; Harrisburg, Penn., and Philadelphia.

The maximum distance to be covered in twenty-four hours, or a proportion thereof, will be seventy miles. There will be no change of horses, and the cavalymen will carry the lightest possible equipment. Each will bear a message from the commander to the military authorities here, and the race will be so timed that the entrants will arrive at Sheepshead Bay between the hours of 2 and 6 p. m. on Monday, May 22, the third day of the tournament.

Major Gen. Leonard Wood, U. S. A. commanding the Department of the East, and his Aide, Captain Gordon Johnson, have been asked to act as judges of the race, for which several handsome trophies have been offered.

Mayor Mitchell is lending his aid to the manoeuvres, and Major Carl F. Hartman, U. S. A. in command of the Signal Corps at Governor's Island, is co-operating with Gen. O'Ryan in perfecting the aerial programme.

Aerial flights will be directed by wireless telegraph, something, it is said, never attempted here before. A central station at Sheepshead Bay will keep in touch by wireless with the aeroplanes circling overhead.

Miss Julia Kerkhof, returned to her home in this city this morning after a visit in Indianapolis.

TEMPERANCE NOTES

(Conducted by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.)

ON THE DOWNGRADE.

For a decade while prohibition area was steadily spreading, the statistics of the federal government showed the manufacturers of intoxicants paying taxes on a constantly enlarging quantity of their products. And it surely did make a hard nut for a prohibitionist to crack—to explain the reason why the liquor trade got better while saloons were all the time growing fewer.—The Continent.

Not such a hard nut when it is known that all liquor on which the government tax has been paid is officially reported as "consumed," and that during the decade referred to large quantities were forced out of the bonded warehouses by the time limit and stored in private warehouses awaiting a constantly decreasing demand.

"But," continues the Continent, with pertinent emphasis, "whatever was the real secret of that paradox, the necessity of explaining it has now quite gone by. It is a fact no more. The business of brewing and distilling is at last on a toboggan slide which nobody can deny. The report of the commissioner of internal revenue for 1915, just issued, shows a decline in both beer making and whisky making, which demonstrates that prohibition is now prohibiting with a vengeance plainly marking the beginning of the end. The 1914 report already showed some shortage in the whisky business; from the year before there was a decline of 15,000,000 gallons. But the new report proves how falling bodies are accelerated as they fall, for the decline in the year just past is 41,000,000 gallons—from 181,000,000 to 140,000,000.

"Even more significant is the record item that within the year 198 distilleries quit business out of 743 such institutions in the United States. And meanwhile the quantity of beer made in this country decreased from 66,000,000 barrels to 59,000,000. This is, for the brewers, their first setback, but it furnishes sufficient notice that they are ticketed for the same downgrade that their distilling brethren are embarked on. The cry is 'Going down!' for the whole crew of 'em."

ALCOHOL AND PNEUMONIA.

Dr. W. A. Evans conducts a department, "How to Keep Well," in Chicago Daily Tribune. Giving advice recently concerning measures for the prevention of colds and pneumonia he said:

"Now is the time to get on the water wagon and to stay there. Whisky and every other form of alcoholic drink is a pneumonia begetter. Alcohol lowers the fighting defenses of the human body against all forms of disease, but especially against pneumonia. This has been proved by careful scientific tests. It is a universally recognized clinical fact. This is one of the points on which the laboratory men and the practicing physicians are in full accord. If an ordinary man gets pneumonia chances are three to one that he will get well. Whisky drinkers who get pneumonia do not have a three-to-one chance for life."

RUSSIA DRY FOR ALL TIME.

In a debate before the Russian duma the minister of finance, M. Bark, made this significant declaration:

"I deem it necessary to declare categorically that all suspicions ascribing to the government any intention of resuming the state sale of liquors are unfounded. I declare categorically that the government will encourage temperance after the war, also, and that any return to the old state of affairs is impossible. Proof of this intention is the fact that the government is now engaged in drawing up a bill, on lines suggested by forty-five members of the duma, for the maintenance of temperance for all time. This bill already has met with the sympathy of the entire council of ministers, and vodka, in accordance with the czar's wish, as expressed to me, will be totally prohibited forever."

BRINGS MORBID CHANGES.

That indulgence in intoxicating beverages, even to a degree short of the conditions of intemperance and inebriety, is calculated to bring about morbid changes in the human body, and to lead to mental and physical deterioration, is a fact which is only too patent to every practitioner of medicine.—The Lancet.

EFFECT IN NEW DRY STATES.

While some of the merchants in the newly dry states are loath to admit as yet that increased business is due to prohibition all agree that at least the expected calamities have not materialized, unless the loss in police and court business can be considered a calamity.

SOLUTION OF LIQUOR QUESTION.

There is but one solution of the liquor question, and that is the nationwide extermination of the traffic in alcohol. It has already been condemned as an enemy to health and to the home, and it is not indicted for high treason because it paralyzes the patriotism of citizens in the time of war.—William J. Bryan.

WASTE OF TIME.

There is no use wasting time on any young man who drinks liquor.—Andrew Carnegie.

THE REV. H. R. BOOCH NAMED

Local Delegates Return from Indianapolis After Attending Congregational Meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Findley and the Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Booch returned Friday from Indianapolis where they went as delegates to the state conference of Congregational churches.

The local church was honored at the conference by having its pastor, H. R. Booch named as the next state conference preacher. The Rev. Mr. Booch was also elected a member of the state committee to make preparation for the tercentenary celebration of Congregational churches, commemorating the landing of the Pilgrim fathers at Plymouth Rock.

The conference pledged itself to assist the national council of Congregational churches to work for the addition of 500,000 new members of Congregational churches and the raising of $2,000,000 for Home and Foreign Missionary work.

The conference was held at the First church of Indianapolis with the Rev. Curtis Luther Talmage as moderator.

104,106 AUTO LICENSES
ISSUED THUS FAR THIS YEAR

This Means Practically One Automobile for Every Twenty Persons in The State.

The secretary of state has issued more automobile licenses so far this year than he issued in all of 1915, and Herman Conter, deputy secretary of state, who has charge of the automobile license bureau, expresses the belief that the year's increase will be greater than that of last year, and almost as many as the total issued in 1913, the first year the present law went into effect.

In the entire year of 1915 the total number of licenses issued was 96,915. Thus far in 1916 the number issued is 104,106.

The amount of license fees collected by the secretary of state in 1915 was approximately $585,000. This year he has collected $650,000. Conter thinks the total number of licenses this year will reach 130,000 and the total collection of fees will amount to $750,000. This anticipated total, 130,000 automobiles, would mean an average of one automobile for practically every twenty persons in the state.

The growth of the number of automobiles owned in Indiana has been amazing. The automobile license law was enacted and became effective in 1913. In that year 44,732 licenses were issued. In 1914 the number increased to 66,500, and in 1915 it was 96,915, an increase of 30,415.

SECOND EXPEDITION TO LEAVE MEXICAN SOIL

Col. Sibley Thinks His Mission of Dispersing Bandits Has Been Accomplished.

By United Press.

San Antonio, Tex., May 20.—Withdrawal of the second American expedition to Boquillas will be accomplished within a few days. Col. Sibley believes his mission of dispersing the bandits who raided Boquillas and Glenn Springs has been accomplished and he has notified headquarters of his intention to return to the border. For this reason the Sixth cavalry which withdrew from the first expedition yesterday will be utilized as a Big Bend patrol instead of enforcing the second expedition.

In a battle yesterday four bandits were wounded and two captured.

They had held as prisoner a Caranza commander's son, thus showing they were not allied with the Caranzistas.

The second expedition has dispersed the bandits, driving them something more than 125 miles below the border.

Mr. Retailer, a Word, Please!
One thing you pay rent for is your store window.
Do you make it pay dividends?
Does it show a profit?
It should. If it does not it is your fault.
Here is one way to make it pay—a mighty certain way.
Read the newspapers. When you see articles you have in stock advertised, show them.
Show them at the time the advertising is running.
Tie your store up to the dealer's newspaper advertising.
That will bring the newspaper reader into your store and that means business.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS PLEDGE LOYALTY TO UNION

Amid Stirring Scenes Resolutions Addressed to President are Unanimously Adopted.

Birmingham, Ala., May 20.—By rising vote, and with one accord, more than 2,000 Confederate Veterans, representing every Confederate Division in the South, renewed their oath of allegiance to the government of the United States in its hour of international difficulty.

A resolution to this effect, introduced by General C. W. Hooper, of the Alabama Division of the Army of Tennessee, was adopted, and motion passed that it be wired to President Woodrow Wilson of the United States.

The reading of the resolution by a Confederate soldier, and its adoption, with cheers and unanimity by the several thousand people assembled, was one of the most stirring features of the meeting. The resolution in full follows:

"To the President and Congress of the United States:

"We, the United Confederate Veterans in Reunion assembled at Birmingham, Alabama, this 16th day of May, 1916, do hereby again renew and declare our unflinching allegiance to the government of the United States in this its hour of great international difficulties.

"We took up arms against the government, not as rebels, but to protect our homes and firesides, to preserve and maintain the principles of States rights, and although the arbitrament of arms was against us, we lost neither our courage, our manhood, nor our patriotism.

"To-day, the remnant of the armies of the Confederate States of America, does hereby offer itself, its sons and its property, upon the altar of a reunited country, which we love and seek to serve, protect and defend.

"We recommend that every male citizen over sixteen years of age, residing in the United States, and its territories, be required to immediately report to the Probate Judge of his county, or other like officer, under penalty of the law, and there swear allegiance to his government, pledging himself to loyally support the government against any and all foes, whether internal or foreign, that may attempt to hinder, or destroy the rights, property or liberty of its people."

Suggestions on Clean-Up Campaign.

We have just concluded the most successful clean up campaign in the history of Seymour, thanks to the organized efforts of the Women's Clubs, the Commercial Club and the City Officials, together with the hearty cooperation of practically all the citizens. We feel the few who failed to respond failed through oversight rather than any lack of appreciation of a clean, sanitary and slightly city or any disposition to mar the pleasure of others.

Now that our city is in a good condition we are requesting each householder to contribute his mite towards keeping it so, by complying with the ordinance passed for that purpose.

The city agrees on its part to do certain things viz: to remove all garbage once a week and all ashes, cinders, glass, tin cans, etc., once every two weeks provided citizens will comply with certain instructions viz: Collect all ashes, cinders, etc., in one pile or receptacle, all tin cans, glass, etc., in another and put all garbage in a water tight vessel covered with a lid. All to be kept on premises (not in alley or street) but convenient to alley.

We request the cooperation of all to the observance of these simple rules to the end that Seymour may be a clean, sanitary and slightly city.

Respectfully,
JOHN A. ROSS, Mayor.

HUGHES IS CHOICE OF REPUBLICANS IN OREGON

New Yorker Probably Received More Votes Than Burton and Cummins Combined in Primary.

By United Press.

Portland, Ore., May 20.—Charles E. Hughes, of New York, justice of the supreme court of the United States, was the overwhelming choice of the Republicans of Oregon as presidential nominee on the face of the early returns to-day from yesterday's preferential presidential primary election.

Scattering incomplete returns from twelve counties indicate Hughes had carried the state over Burton of Ohio and Cummins, of Iowa, by a tremendous majority. These returns indicate that the New Yorker had received more votes and Burton and Cummins combined.

RUMORED THAT ROUMANIA IS NEAR BREAK WITH ALLIES

Action is Said to be Outcome of the Newly Negotiated Commercial Treaty With Germany.

By United Press.

Washington, May 20.—A rumor was in circulation here this afternoon that Roumania is near a break with the allies as the result of her recently negotiated commercial treaty with Germany and Austria. One report said the French minister of Roumania had been recalled.

The German semi-official news agency yesterday declared the Russian government had taken steps to learn exactly what was contained in the treaty negotiated with Germany expecting the provisions were of political importance.

CANADIAN INDIAN WINS WAR MEDAL FOR BRAVERY.

Doesn't Know Why He Fights, but He Did Kill One of the Enemy.

F. Pegahingabow is a Canadian Indian, son of a chief whose tribe lives not far from Toronto. "Peg" is the name by which he is known among the Canadian soldiers fighting in the Ypres salient. Recently he won the D. C. M. (distinguished conduct medal), and after he had received the honor he was forced to tell his trenchmates the story.

"I don't know much," "Peg" began. "I Indian. Live little place in Canada. One day man come, say, 'You ought fight.' I say, 'I fight. Where I go?' He tell me. By and by I get out here. Don't know why I fight. I messenger for officer. He tell me take message, and I take it. One day we have real fight. Captain tell me take message. I take it and come back. Take another message, come back. Find my captain dead. Men they get out trench, go after Germans. Kill my captain. I got something fighting for. Take captain's revolver and go with men. No use staying in trench. We run fast. Somebody say hundred yards, but I think mile. So many bullets flying all around us.

"By and by we come German dugout. We got no bombs left to throw German officer in dugout. I lose my captain's revolver, so use my bayonet. Men say, 'Wait, Peg, we get bombs.' I say, 'I go after him.' Then I go in dugout. German he shoot at me two times."

"Peg" paused. "What'd you do?" chorused half a dozen listeners. "Hell," "Peg" said in the same placid way. "I get him with my bayonet. He can't shoot again. Killed my captain. I get him. I don't know much. I Indian."

Francis Kenworthy, who was arrested last night on a charge of intoxication, was fined $1 and costs by Mayor Ross this morning. He will lay out his fine.

Very little damage was done in this county Thursday night by the light frost reported in all parts of the county. A few patches of potatoes were injured to some extent but the damage is not general. Orchards escaped, the farmers say.

Gladys Taskey appeared in city court today to answer to a statutory charge preferred against her and pleaded not guilty. Her hearing was continued until 5 o'clock this afternoon if the witnesses can be obtained, otherwise the trial will be held Monday morning at 8 o'clock.

County Agent A. D. Cobb was here from Brownstown today to attend the Grange meeting. He says the agricultural work is progressing nicely. Preliminary work in connection with the preparation of the soil for the crops has been completed and practically all the seed is in the ground.

Some idea of the heavy traffic over the sidewalks in the business part of the city was gained today when the stone walk in front of the Groub Wholesale House, West Second street, was torn up preliminary to the construction of a new concrete walk. The stone was laid more than twenty years ago. Each stone slab was four inches thick at the time it was laid. When the walk was removed today it was found that in the path of the heaviest travel the stone had been worn down so that it was not but one and three-eighths inches thick.

Little Sir Galahad

By PHOEBE GRAY

Copyright by Small, Maynard & Company

To Sir Knight Charles Brushly Thomas, from a few of his mul-mul-titood-i-nous admirin' friends.

"Oh, dear," cried Charlie, looking up with shining, pathetic eyes. "I never invited the girls to my party."

"Don't you fret, Charlie-boy," comforted Mary Alice. "They couldn't have come. They all went out of town for Christmas."

Everybody looked at Mary Alice. An explanation was wanted.

"It was Francis' idea," she said. "First he wanted that him and me—he and I should give it to you; then the girls heard about it, and they were just crazy to help. I went to Mr. Willett's office—I had to because—for a reason—and at first he said he and Mrs. Willett would do it all. But I told him the girls would be so disappointed, and we fixed it this way. I been so nervous, for fear it wouldn't come. Mr. Willett said he'd have it sent out, but I was afraid— Isn't it a dandy? It's better 'n any Stacey's had in their whole art department. Mr. Willett sent 'way to New York for it."

This was a long speech for Mary Alice. She blushed and retired into the shadows.

"You lazy critters, clean up this mess," said Martha. Lem went out with a big armful of rubbish, while Sam followed with the empty case. Charlie sat fingering the shiny instruments, his eyes glistening with happiness.

"He's got a real talent," Martha was always insisting.

Sam returned to the sitting room alone. There was a deal of puzzling over the exact utilities of the various articles in the outfit. Somebody looked up; it was Mrs. Brown.

"What's become of Lem?" she queried.

Just then the kitchen door swung open and Lem, quite red in the face, replied: "Here I be." He was pushing before him a big and commodious wheel-chair.

"That's what I wanted to go to town for," he said. "I wrote in and had it saved out for me; a friend picked it out. He's a storekeeper. When I come home, I drive around the back way so's 't nobuddy'd see me. Whaddayou think of 'er, chummy?"

Of late Sam had been allowing Lem a little money, in the interest of clothes and self-respect. He wanted to see what Lem would do with it. This was a part of his "treatment" in the process of reclamation. Now Sam felt a queer, lumpy discomfort in the neighborhood of his Adam's apple, as if that member were trying violently to climb out through his mouth. He blinked.

Scrutiny showed Sam that Lem had on the same humble suit of clothes which he had worn on the day he quit jail. He had on the same blue cotton shirt, with its limp collar. It dawned upon the Ross that all the clothes Lem had bought consisted of a necktie of hot red, elaborately etched by machinery with floral decorations as modest as the wallpaper in a country hotel.

Lem's soul had waked up, indeed! Behind the expressionless eyes dwelt sentiment, tenderness, human sympathy. Lem had gone humbly without a penny of his own for four months, and then with his first few dollars he had bought a two-bit necktie for himself, and this princely offering to lay upon the altar of affection.

"Oh, Lem, how could you?" Martha said, blowing her nose.

"Lookit this," said Lem, spinning the chair about like a top. "That there little trallin' wheel is swirleed, see? And this kind of a hoop thing on both wheels is to grab with your hands, so's 't you can push 'er 'round and steer er any place you want to go. It works just as easy—don't take no effort at all."

He looked about, proud as a boy; then he suddenly picked up Charlie, cushions and all, and deposited him gently in the new chair. Charlie was speechless, gazing from one face to another in a blissful daze.

"Makes that other old homestead thing look like thirty cents, don't it?" said Sam.

"No it don't, no it don't," cried the little boy. "'S no such a thing. I ain't never goin' back on my old chair. You come 'ere, Boss; come 'ere, Lem."

The two great fellows went and stood awkwardly by the little boy. He reached up and laid a hand on the coat of each, clutching both with the grip of a great affection.

"Lem understands, don't you, Lem? You don't expect me to go back on my old chair, do you, Lem?"

"You bet I don't Charlie. If you'd rather have it, I'll take this new rat trap and—"

"No you won't. I'm goin' to keep 'em both, long's I live, even when I get so I can walk good as anybody. Maybe I'll use the new one more, to get used to travelin' around. But I'm goin' to sit some in the Boss's every day. It's awful comfortable. Gee! I'm a turrible lucky boy. There ain't nobody ever comes near me that don't do somethin' nice for me. I guess it's Merry Christmas every day, all the year 'round with me."

He paused for breath. Into his cheeks had crept the delicate, warm pink. His great eyes swam and shone, his aureate curls shook vigorously, an animated and genial halo about his clear-cut little face.

"Gee!" he said again. "I'm a turrible lucky little boy. Three cheers for Christmas!"

Everybody laughed; there had been a tension, a constraint. Lem's big, white teeth glistened, his mouth widened, and the little lines of good humor spread away up to his eyes.

"Haw, haw!" he shouted. "Haw, haw! That's a good one—three cheers for Christmas. Hoo-raw!"

The laughter waked up and scared the drowsy Dick, who failed to catch the humor of the situation and howled dismally, only to get laughed at and squeezed, and kissed and tucked away with another warm bottle. It paid to be cross, then, even on Christmas.

"Now, folks," said Sam, beginning to fidget and pull with large, futile fingers at his collar; "it's gettin' late, and I ain't sprung my part of this celebration yet. The young-ones has had their presents and some surprises has happened—I got a word to say. It's about this Lem, here, and you other Browns."

"Now, Lem's be'n with me quite some time, and I'm gettin' more or less dependent on him; ain't I, Lem?"

"I don't know," said Lem. "Be you?"

"Sure be. T' other day I bought a little addition to the farm. That's the five-acre piece on the Sheffield road, down toward the car line. There's a right good little house on it. Waters, the feller I bought the property from, has got a job somewhere else. I jest wondered, long's Lem seems to like us folks and contented with his job, how you Browns 'd like to move out here handy to us, all be together, and set up housekeepin'. This bein' Christmas, I didn't know but if the idea pleased ye, I'd give ye a year's rent. That suit you, Lottie? How 'bout it, Mary Alice? Car line's handy. You can go to town every day—"

"A Reg'lar Ripsnorter, Five Reels, Called 'The Panther's Eye.'"

And so it had come around again, the little cottage with the green grass. Mrs. Brown had never dared dream of it. Two children, a home, and—a husband, good, clean, industrious; the bitter years rolled up like a dingy and soiled curtain.

Mary Alice's arm stole around her mother's neck, and one hand groped out for the big paw of Lem Brown, as hard and knobby as the field stones he juggled so earnestly, but, unlike them, quite warm, and capable of giving a comforting and cheerful squeeze.

Section 4. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation holding a license under the provisions of this ordinance or any person acting under a license issued in the name of another as in this ordinance provided to take, receive or purchase, any property, article or thing from any minor, or the ownership of which is in or which is claimed by any minor, or which may be in the possession or under the control of any minor.

Section 5. The Marshal of the City of Seymour, may, in his discretion, cause any goods, articles or things of value purchased by any such person, firm or corporation, which he shall have reason to believe was not purchased of the lawful owner, to be held for the purpose of being identified by the lawful owner thereof for such reasonable length of time, not exceeding five days, as the said Marshal shall deem necessary for such identification.

Section 6. It shall be unlawful and it is hereby declared to be a nuisance, for any person, firm or corporation, holding a Junk Dealer's License from the City of Seymour, Indiana, to keep or deposit any junk, old rags, old rope, old canvas, old paper or the like within the corporate limits or within one-half mile of the corporate limits of the City of Seymour, Indiana.

FORMER RESIDENT PASSES AWAY AT KANSAS HOME

R. T. Stanfield, Born and Reared in Jackson County, Veteran of Civil War, Had Won Honors in West.

R. T. Stanfield, a former resident of Jackson county, and a brother of Mrs. M. A. Shuttles, of this city, died Monday at his home in Belleville, Kansas, of heart trouble, at the age of 71. Mr. Stanfield has been a resident of Kansas for forty-five years, having gone there shortly after the war. He was born in this county in 1845, and received his education in the public schools of the county. When nineteen years old he enlisted in Company K, One Hundred and Twentieth Regiment of Indiana Volunteer Infantry. His regiment took part in the Georgia campaign, participated in the fall of Atlanta, and was thereafter transferred to Tennessee, where it participated in the battles of Spring Hill, Franklin and Nashville. He was honorably discharged at Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 8, 1866.

After removing to Kansas, Mr. Stanfield was chosen captain of the Belleville company of state militia, and saw considerable service in the Indian troubles during the years of '68 and '69. His company of militia had several narrow escapes from the Indians, and during the raid in August, 1868, one of the company was killed. He was a faithful and honored member of the G. A. R. and had served as county treasurer of Republic county and as mayor of Belleville. Speaking of his life and career, the Belleville Telescope says:

"He was truly a splendid citizen and devoted to his family. Probably no other citizen in Belleville could boast of as many warm friends as could Mr. Stanfield. He was a man of sunny disposition with a good word for everybody and a good deed for many, and leaves as a priceless heritage to his wife and children an honored and untarnished name. Mr. Stanfield has always been a staunch Republican and has taken an active part in politics and all matters pertaining to the welfare of his community. He served as county treasurer of Republic county for four years; as mayor of Republic for several terms, and also served as a member of the school board there. He was trustee of Big Bend township several terms, and from 1910 to 1912 was mayor of Belleville. In 1908 he was a delegate to the National Republican Convention at Chicago from this district. The funeral was held Wednesday at the family home, conducted by Rev. H. C. Duckett, of Bloomfield, Iowa, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city. All business houses and the city offices were closed during the funeral. The beautiful flowers massed around the casket, in a small way, manifested the kindly feeling all had for him."

A team driven by Clyde Pearson took fright and ran away this morning when they were left standing at the corner of Bruce and Chestnut streets. The team was hitched to a wagon which contained a calf. The horses became frightened shortly after Mr. Pearson left them at the corner, and they started to run West on Bruce street. They had not gone far, however, when the wagon hit a tree and threw the horses down, bruising them considerably. One axle of the wagon was broken. The calf escaped injury.

was immediately given, but the flames had gained such headway that they were beyond control. Within a short time after the alarm was given about five hundred men and women offered their services and carried water in buckets and tubs.

A new livery barn owned by Horace Densford is located across the alley from the factory and was not more than sixteen feet from the intense heat. It appeared for a time that the livery stable would be consumed but was saved by a novel method. Heavy iron roofing was brought and placed in front of the livery stable and then hundreds of gallons of water were poured over it to keep it cool. In this manner the barn was protected and was only slightly damaged.

The plant had not been running since last winter but arrangements were being made to resume operation as soon as possible. It is stated that new labels, boxes and other supplies that are needed for the season's pack had been delivered. The plant with the machinery was totally destroyed. The saving of the warehouse across the street from the plant means thousands of dollars for the company for in that building were several thousand cans of kraut, hominy, pumpkin and pork and beans. These had been packed during the last summer and fall and were being held for a better price than was available at the time the factory was closed last winter.

Mr. Swope was notified of the fire early this morning and went to Crothersville on an early car. All the insurance papers and records of the stock in storage had been securely locked up in the fire proof safe and it was impossible to get to these for several hours as Mr. Schuler was unable to leave his home to unlock the safe.

The Rockford plant which was owned by Mr. Swope, Mr. Isaacs and Sol. Davis was burned with a total loss of about $25,000. The loss was partially covered by insurance. It was believed that the fire at that factory was started from a spark from a passing freight train although nothing positive was ever revealed concerning the origin. In that fire 200,000 empty cans, 18,000 cans of pumpkin and labels valued at $700 were burned.

Inez Lahne Dead.

Inez Lahne at Brownstown died at 5:30 o'clock this morning after an illness of nearly one year with consumption. She was born October 12, 1894 making her age 21 years, 7 months and 8 days. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lahne, who formerly lived at Sligo but who live at Brownstown now. Her parents with one brother and three sisters survive. She was a member of the Rebekah Lodge and of the Presbyterian church. The funeral will be held Monday at 1:30 in the Presbyterian church at Brownstown conducted by Rev. William Grant of Louisville. Burial at Vallonia cemetery.

An old white horse hitched to a wagon used to gather rags, took fright this afternoon while standing on St. Louis Avenue. The horse started east and left behind it a continual stream of rags and a wide path through the Saturday afternoon shoppers. It was stopped, however, shortly after it had succeeded in emptying the wagon of its contents and breaking one or two straps on the harness.

SOCIAL EVENTS

PROGRESSIVE DINNER.

One of the most enjoyable affairs that has been given in honor of the graduating class of Shields high school, was the progressive dinner party which occurred last evening.

The various courses of the dinner were served at the homes of different members of the class. The guests first met at the home of Miss Marian Mains on West Seventh street. Here a delicious course of iced fruits was served by the hostess. The members of the class were then taken to the home of Miss Rebecca Dixon on North Walnut, where they were given the soup course, with the accompaniments of wafers and pickles.

The dinner course was served at the home of Lyman Blish on North Chestnut street. The delicious collation consisted of veal loaf with mushroom sauce, mashed potatoes, peas, hot biscuits, olives, mint ice, and salted almonds.

From the Blish residence the Senior class repaired to the home of Miss Rachael Barbour on North Chestnut street. Here a delicious fruit salad added the fourth course to the enjoyable dinner.

The final iced course was served at the home of Miss Annette Kessler on North Walnut. The homes of the various hosts and hostesses were appropriately decorated for the occasion and the dinner proved itself to be one of the most pleasant affairs yet given for the class.

ENTERTAINED

Master Carl Husted entertained the members of his Sunday School Class of the First Baptist church at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Husted, Thursday evening in honor of his ninth birthday anniversary. Twelve boys responded to his invitation and enjoyed the evening from four to seven in music and games. His mother had prepared a most delicious supper which the boys thoroughly enjoyed. Carl's Sunday School teacher, Miss Faye Baxter, was also one of his guests.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Miss Anna Topic entertained with a miscellaneous shower last evening at her home on South O'Brien street in compliment to Miss Sonora Sierp, a bride-elect. Following the presentation of the gift packages to Miss Sierp a delightful evening was enjoyed by the guests. Dainty luncheon was served. The marriage of Miss Sierp to Benjamin Tiemeyer will occur in the near future.

SOPHOMORE PARTY

The members of the Sophomore Class of the Shields High School were entertained last evening by Harry Miller, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miller, North Walnut street. The party was given on the lawn which was prettily lighted with Japanese lanterns. Refreshments were served and the young people thoroughly enjoyed games arranged for them.

EIGHTH GRADE PICNIC

Members of the Eighth grade of the Shields building enjoyed a delightful picnic at Rapp's Grove at Rockford to-day. The pupils accompanied by their teachers went to the woods this morning and will return late in the afternoon. The picnicers enjoyed a big dinner after which a program of games was arranged.

FAST GAME ASSURED FANS AT BALL PARK TOMORROW

Mengels, of Louisville, with Commitz in Box, To Be The Attraction—Otto's Go to Columbus.

Fans should see one of the best games of the season at Schroer Park to-morrow afternoon when the crack Mengel team, of Louisville, will play their second game of the season with the Red Sox. The Louisville team won from the locals 2 to 0, in their first encounter, and the Red Sox are out for revenge. However, they will have even harder opposition than before, as Howard Commitz, former Pittsburgh star, will be on the firing line for the Mengels. Several other former big leaguers are in the Louisville lineup, which is without question the strongest in that city. Voyls and Anderson will compose the local battery. The game will be called at 2:30.

The Ottos will open their season to-morrow when they go to Columbus to play the Specials, of that city. Furnish and Moritz will be at the points for the locals, while the remainder of the line-up will be practically the same as last year's. A crowd of Otto's followers is expected to accompany the team.

Mrs. Samuel Hodapp, who has been visiting in Florida, Ill., has returned to her home in this city.

ANNA BELLE Delights Some Poor Children

Dear Friends:—I just know my dear Uncle Ezra is one of the most thoughtful men in the world. The other day he asked me how I'd like for him to take some poor little children out in his machine. Of course he knew that I would know of quite a good many, as our SEWING SOCIETY visits all the poor children we can take care of. Well, I thought it was very kind of him to suggest such a pleasant surprise for them and the other day we took them out for a spin in the country. I wish you could have heard their happy shouts of laughter as we sped down through the valleys and over the hills. After we got back to town he took the whole bunch of us around to the ice cream parlor and—of course we ate some ice cream.

I trust that you're doing well in SEWING SOCIETY work, but if you should be a friend who hasn't joined our happy band of workers, now is the very time to do so. Just address me care this paper, enclose a two-cent stamp for postage and I'll be glad to send you a Certificate of Membership. Your loving,

Anna Belle

QUEEN'S MESSAGE

A VERY INTERESTING GAME FOR OUR GOOD GIRLS AND BOYS
